

One word or two? Choose the correct option given in [ ] for each sentence.

Please note that in several one-word instances, a hyphenated version is used.

1. After the accident, what doctor did you visit for the routine [checkup/check up]?
2. How many times, would you say, in a month did the insurance company call to [checkup/check up] on your payment status?
3. I believe it took me about two weeks to master the [everyday/every day] responsibilities and rhythm of the job.
4. It cost me $10.00 a week to ride the bus [everyday/every day] to work.
5. I'm sorry that your relationship with your spouse didn't [workout/work out].
6. The gym in my office building allowed me to get in a decent [workout/work out] after my shift was over.
7. How am I supposed to believe that you were [setup/set up] and didn't commit the theft?
8. Describe the stereo [setup/set up] that was stolen from your home.
9. Because there was a [breakdown/break down] in communication, the papers were not filed by the correct date.
10. A [follow up/follow-up] appointment was scheduled for three weeks after the medicine was prescribed.
11. I'll [follow up/follow-up] after my client reads the transcript.
12. During what month last year did you [dropout/drop out] of the rehab program?
13. In 2005, I signed over the rights to my daughter so that she would be able to [takeover/take over] the family business.
14. I witnessed the driver lose all control of the motorcycle and drive right [onto/on to] the sidewalk.
15. Let's move [onto/on to] the next document that details your hospital bills.

16. [Altogether/All together], this was an extremely productive meeting.
17. Did you have any phone contact with the Defendant at [anytime/any time] in the past two weeks?
18. [Anytime/Any time] you need a break, please let me know.
19. Because of my leg fracture, I had [alot/a lot] of trouble putting weight on it when walking.
20. My daughter broke her toe after she jumped [into/in to] the shallow end of the pool.
21. Later that afternoon, our electrician came [into/in to] finish wiring the basement.
22. The doctor told me I would be waiting for [awhile/a while] for the test results.
23. If you think of [anymore/any more] key pieces of information, please don't hesitate to call my office.
24. I used to drive into the city to visit my optometrist, but I don't [anymore/any more] because I found a better one closer to me.
25. It's possible that [maybe/may be] you are correct. I [maybe/may be] wrong here.
26. I decided that my boyfriend and I needed to [breakup/break up] when I realized we would never agree on whether or not to have a family.
27. When I stumbled [upon/up on] the documents, I knew I had to confront my employer.
28. We'll postpone the interview for today and resume [someday/some day] next week.
29. It has been [sometime/some time] since I have had a physical with my GP.
30. [Alright/All right]. Let's proceed with the next question.